

Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections works very well and should be standard for all States.